

MORNING APPEAL.

SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1880

The Bodie Free Press boasts because the waters of Mono Lake are nastier than the waters of the Dead Sea.

Reno calls its champion baseball club the "Paralyzers," out of respect to the feelings of their backers in recent matches.

Wives are wanted at Leadville, and according to the Stockton Mail, girls expert in dressing pistol shot wounds preferred.

The Chronicle thinks that the row between the Blaine and Grant faction will result in John Sherman's nomination.

C. H. BELKNAP, of Virginia City will be a candidate for Supreme Judge at the coming Democratic State Convention at Winnemucca.

The New Yorkers are now endeavoring to fathom the reports of the mining experts, and when they finish are in a quandary whether to long the market, short it or keep out.

Here are the latest figures in the candidates contest: Grant 226, Blaine 279, Sherman 96, Edmunds 34, Washburn 13. Necessary for a choice, 379; to be still elected, 108.

The V. & T. R. R. Company are again laying the wires to run the Republican party in Nevada. The party cannot afford to go into the next campaign handicapped by such influences.

WOODHULL is to be married to a titled Englishman. Her former husband, Col. Blood, will probably turn up with her record just as the ceremony is about to begin. Blood will tell—if he gets a chance.

It is now claimed that the terrible cyclones which made such havoc in the Middle States, were accompanied by a powerful electric force which blackened and scorched the trees and grass as if lightning had struck them.

The Tribune speaks of its "unparalleled success." The success of the paper in keeping out of the Sheriff's hands, and the editor in avoiding the penitentiary, may certainly be classed under the head of "unparalleled."

On Thursday last three murderers were taken out of a jail in Osceola Missouri, and hanged by a party of lynchers, while the lawyers were busy in St. Louis fixing some papers to show that because one of the Grand Jurors who indicted them had red hair or spelled his name with a final j the indictment was illegal.

A German in San Francisco gives his idea for the cause of the depression in Comstock stocks. He says: "Ven Jim Fair vent away he took by him a diamond trill. Ven he reached China onert he vent down into a salt mine in der province of Yang Soo, dot is life tons and feet deep. He trilled up under der bottom of der Komstock, and found dere vas notings dere. Den he telegraphed here to sell 'em short. Now, you know all about it."

A YEAR or two ago there was a big sensation in San Francisco over the conduct of a dentist, Dr. W. F. Smith who procured a fraudulent divorce in Arizona and then married Annie Carpenter, a niece of the silver-tongued Tom Fitch, well known on this coast. The Doctor was indicted for adultery, but he successfully staved off the prosecution until last week, when the District Attorney dismissed the indictment, there being no evidence to convict. An exchange says it is presumed that Smith and his wife have "made up," while Annie is sparring about for some other victim.

CHAIN HIM UP.—A reporter who studied journalism in Yale College, and graduated at the head of the class, gives the following description of the wedding tugs of Heister Clymers bride. "A soft tint of warmth seemed to blush in the rich fabric where it lay in thick folds as they swept forth in the long and ample court train about whose edges rifts of fine lace lay like rime, but ere you could define the gleams of a tint 'twas gone, and the pale pearl of the petticoat, flecked and shadowed by deep falls of superb duchesse in a pattern of oak leaves and roses alternating with scantily shirred puffs of the pearl-tinted silk was simply and almost severely elegant."

PISTOL SCORES.—Jim Slack and John Clark, formerly in Virginia, had a shooting match at Lundy on the 13th, and Clark was mortally wounded. Slack and Prof. Melone exchanged eleven shots in front of the International Hotel in Virginia about a year ago, and Melone has since been killed in Deadwood. Clark, the man shot by Slack, kicked to death in Virginia a character known as "General Cass" and afterwards started a row in front of the Silver Palace saloon, which resulted in the killing of a man named White. We have no record of White's victims, but conclude that he must have killed some one at some period of his life, as the men who get shot in these affairs generally run in the same gang.

HOW SHARON WAS THANKED.

In the Republican State Convention held at Austin a resolution was offered thanking representatives Jones, Sharon and Daggett for their services to the State. When this resolution came up another was introduced by Littlefield, editor of the Elko Post, which was the same as that adopted at the Elko county convention, and reads as follows:

WHEREAS, The Hon. William Sharon, who at present holds the position of United States Senator from the State of Nevada, is, and ever since his election has been, a non-resident of this State, and has neglected to occupy his seat or discharge the duties of a Senator, even when his presence and assistance were most urgently needed, and has utterly failed to represent his constituency or to look after their interests, thereby bringing the Republican party of the State into disrepute; and

WHEREAS, He declared in a speech delivered in the United States Senate on the 11th of March, 1880, that his resignation was at the disposal of his constituency whenever they might choose to call for it; therefore Resolved, In County Convention assembled, that the delegates elected by this convention be and they are hereby instructed to introduce into the State Convention a resolution requesting the said Hon. William Sharon to resign the seat now held by him, and to use all honorable means to secure its adoption.

Mr. Littlefield moved that Senator Sharon be requested to resign.

J. J. Work of Eureka, moved the indefinite postponement of the matter, which was carried.

The resolution thanking Jones, Sharon and Daggett was then adopted. What possible reason there could have been for including Sharon in the list of those who are considered to have done the State any service, no one can readily surmise. Jones and Daggett are now in Washington endeavoring to arrange for the continuance of the Carson Mint, and Mr. Daggett has introduced and effected the passage of several bills which will prove of great benefit to Nevada. Sharon has done absolutely nothing at all, and his resignation would be far more acceptable to the people of this State than anything in the shape of thanks for services not rendered. It will be well to keep the names of the framers of the resolution before the people. They are as follows: Kaiser, Pratt and Biglow of Elko; Later and Bishop of Eureka; Scott and Farrell of Lander; Clapp Shaw and Bowler of Nye; Bander of Ormsby; Strother of Storey; Ball of Washoe, and Comins of White Pine.

PRESS OPINIONS.—Dan De Quille of the Enterprise who is not only an art critic but himself an artist, has the following regarding the APPEAL's cartoon:

The Carson APPEAL is now being illustrated. The illustrations are taken from scenes in actual life, by means of a machine that kills on the wing. This apparatus combines the principles of the kaleidoscope, stethoscope, psychoscope, microscope, telescope, and other scopes that "in the gross and scope of mine opinion bodes some strange eruption to our State," as Mr. Shakespeare (now dead) very justly remarks.

The Virginia Chronicle, a newspaper whose ideas of true art are as crude as the prognostications of a horned toad would be regarding the political outlook, has the following on the APPEAL's cartoon. Professional jealousy permeates every line:

The Carson APPEAL now issues illustrated supplements, the artist being a noted caricaturist from Nebraska. A petition is being numerously signed by the leading citizens of the capital, asking Secretary Sherman to load the Mint with dynamite and Louisiana election returns and blow up the town. Governor Kinkead has fled, and the other State officials, with the exception of Secretary Babcock, have taken to the hills. The latter gentleman is taking care of the deserted valuables in the State House, cheering at intervals for the old flag and an appropriation. The artist is armed to the teeth.

The Gold Hill News is silent on the important question and its reticence may be taken as expressing a consciousness of inability to properly deal with the subject from an artistic standpoint.

The Reno Gazette follows in the wake of the APPEAL as an illustrated paper. Yesterday's issue contained a map of a proposed railroad. We may simply mention the fact that the APPEAL's villainous cartoon looks like a fine steel engraving along side of it.

A JOURNALISTIC HAG.—The Times of yesterday shows up the hollowness of the Tribune's support of Sharon, and the Reno Gazette alludes to its support as "lukewarm." The Tribune's lukewarmness indicates that Sharon as yet has not doled out any coin to that paper, and there is really no necessity of his putting up a dollar this year. The mortgage held by the V. & T. Railroad company on the Tribune just at present settles the question of its political labors for the next campaign. It stands to-day with its false prestige and assumed character all gone and reminds one of the shriveled, toothless and diseased Chinamen whom the police of San Francisco sometimes find turned out in the streets to die. These abandoned old crones were once young and perhaps sold as high as $300 at auction. So was the Tribune and sold for fully as much money. The hard-riders who are kicked out of the service by the Chinese are discarded simply because they have survived their usefulness and are no longer a paying investment to their masters. This is exactly the reason why the Tribune has been turned out to die, and the fact is generally recognized that its blood is upon its own head.

It is proposed to build a wagon road from Bridgeport to Lundy. This will materially shorten the distance between Carson and Mill Creek.

LEADVILLE MINING.—A correspondent of the Chronicle, writing from Leadville, says of the mines in that region:

Preparations for the proper development of the mines are being made by men from California and Nevada, and in place of the tenderfoot style of working, consisting of a whim with a Missouri mule attached to it, and a wheelbarrow with a man behind to shove it, and another man in front attached to a rope to pull, the engine is being used. Just think of men hauling ore out of a coyote hole 200 and 300 feet on an incline of 20 degrees with a wheelbarrow. That's the kind of miners they have out here—fellows who have been skinning mule and whacking bulls all their lives—and they will assert themselves thorough miners. It would make a Washoe canary laugh to see them at work.

The correspondent's idea would doubtless be to levy an assessment, purchase $100,000 worth of machinery, put the item on the books at $200,000, pocket the odd $100,000 and send $2 waste rock to the mills to the mills to be crushed at $7 a ton. When the experienced Comstock miner once gets a foothold in Leadville, what a revolution there will be in mining.

The Austin Recette makes the following neat thrust:

The Bodie Free Press reminds Nevada that ex-Senator W. M. Stewart is still alive and might be induced to take Sharon's place. The editor of the News and ex-Senator Stewart are residents of California, and really have no say in our affairs.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

AT A MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF Ormsby County, held at Carson City, Saturday, May 15, 1880, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a Primary Election is hereby called for SATURDAY, May 15, 1880, for the purpose of selecting four delegates to represent Ormsby County in the Democratic State Convention at Winnemucca on May 27, 1880.

The places for holding said Primary Election are as follows: In Carson City, at Curry Engine House; in Empire City, at the hotel of N. Ambrose. Polls opened at 12 o'clock M. and close at 8 o'clock P. M.

The test for voters shall be as follows: A pledge by the person offering to vote that he will support the nominees of the Democratic State and National Conventions at the general election to be held in November, A. D. 1880.
